

Lavras Gold to open trading on June 6

Leadership team will launch two weeks of marketing that will include a corporate update webinar on June 7 and PDAC on June 13 to 15.

TORONTO, ONTARIO – June 3, 2022 – Lavras Gold Corp. (TSXV: LGC) will celebrate its launch and new public listing when it rings the bell to open trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange on Monday, June 6. The Company was spun out of Amarillo Gold Corporation, which was bought by Hochschild Mining PLC earlier this year.

Lavras Gold's long-term objective is to unlock the gold mineral endowment of its highly-prospective Lavras do Sul Property in southern Brazil. Its immediate goals are to grow property-wide gold resources to at least one million ounces, drill-test five priority exploration targets, and consolidate its total number of shares outstanding.

"This a great way to mark our new start," said Michael Durose, Lavras Gold's President and Chief Executive Officer. "It's a very busy, exciting time: our share consolidation becomes effective next week and with two drills turning, we have a lot to look forward to."

A recording of the opening will be shared on our YouTube channel after the ceremony.

June 7 webinar on LDS Project, exploration results, and plans

Lavras Gold: Exploring to realize the potential of a multi-million ounce district in southern Brazil

Lavras Gold (TSXV: LGC) is a Canadian exploration company focused on realizing the potential of the Lavras do Sul gold project (LDS Project) in Brazil. Located in the state of Rio Grande do Sul, the LDS Project is believed to host an alkaline porphyry gold-copper system. More than 23 gold prospects centred on historic gold workings have been identified on the property, which spans more than 22,000 hectares.

The Company's vision is to maximize shareholder value by applying a sustained systematic and technically-based exploration program to the LDS Project and any other opportunities that may arise.
